

Program Guide Update for the Society's New Waterpark Attendant Training Certification

(March 2024)

Waterpark Attendant (12 hr.): Provides knowledge of waterpark operations, waterslides, amusement devices and the lifesaving skills to prevent injuries and promote the safe use of the facilities. The course identifies the role and responsibilities of a Waterpark Attendant and how they integrate as part of a waterpark's safety supervision team. It provides training in how the attendant can identify, control and eliminate risks and hazards through facility analysis.

Prerequisite: Minimum 14 years of age, Lifesaving Society Emergency First Aid or EFA from on these approved agencies. Prior lifesaving training is recommended.

Instruction and certification: Current Lifesaving Instructors teach and certify candidates.

Candidate recognition: Certification card.

Candidate references: There are no required references for candidates. Use handouts or references as applicable.

Instructional format: This certification may be delivered through in-person learning only.

Instructional time: Actual time needed may vary depending on course format, number of candidates and the learning activities selected. Breaks require additional time. Based on no more than 20 candidates.

Waterpark Attendant course	Classroom	Water
Total Time (12 hr.)	5.5 hr.	6.5 hr.

Required equipment: Classroom supplies such as tables, chairs, flip chart paper, stand and markers, masking tape, A/V equipment. First Aid supplies including barrier devices, adult, child and infant CPR training manikins, and AED Trainers.

Facility requirements: A pool with minimum width of 5 metres, a minimum length of 15 metres and includes an area with a depth between 1.0 metre and 1.5 metres deep.

Recertification: Waterpark Attendant remains current for 24 months from the date of certification. Waterpark Attendant is recertified by successfully completing a Waterpark Attendant course.

Fees: The Lifesaving Society exam fee applies to successful candidates only.